Re: United States v. Darren D'Anzieri
20 Cr. 660 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

Defendant Darren D'Anzieri ("D'Anzieri") is currently at liberty on an unsecured $100,00.00 bond that limits his travel to the Southern and Eastern District of New York, the District of New Jersey, the District of Maryland and all federal districts within the State of Pennsylvania. Recently, D'Anzieri was informed by his employer that he will be required to travel to areas that are outside these areas of permissible travel with little notice to perform his job. This lack of notice renders obtaining prior permission from the Court to travel impactable. For this reason, D'Anzieri respectfully requests that his travel restriction be modified to permit travel within the continental United States with prior permission from Pretrial Services. Defendant has been on bond for nearly eleven months and his supervising officer, United States Pretrial Officer Robert Hyde for the District of New Jersey, reports that he has been fully compliant with all conditions of his release. Pretrial Services in this District, by United States Pretrial Officer Lea Harmon, does not object to this application and the government, by Assistant United States Attorney Samuel Raymond, defers to Pretrial Services.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

Sanford Talkin
